

Rules and Safety

By reading the rules and safety information below, and signing the declaration, you are accepting the following:

1. Laser games can be a strenuous activity, physical exertion may be required
2. The possibility of injury to yourself and others exists
3. The games can be dangerous if the safety measures and staff are ignored
4. Always follow the staff's instructions
5. No physical contact is allowed
6. You must not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs
7. Equipment that is deliberately damaged is charged for
8. Should you become a danger to yourself or others, you will be asked to leave
9. You will stay within the area designated for the laser games
10. The inflatable obstacles must not be jumped on
11. Valuables and personal effects are your responsibility

Skirmish Laser Games reserves the right to refuse admission to persons not deemed to be fit to play the laser games.

Skirmish Laser Games will not use the information you provide on the declaration for any other purpose.

Photographs will be taken during the day, these images may be used in future promotional material, if you do not wish this to happen, please inform a member of staff before play.